INTRODUCTORY AND EXPLANATORY OBSERVATIONS.

1. TOTAL AMOUNT OF LOCAL TAXATION OF IRELAND.

The local taxation of Ireland, making the deductions usually necessary for sums appearing in the returns of two local authorities in consequence of the contributions sometimes made from the taxation of one towards the expenditure of another, and supplying the absence of one return* by the latest information available, may be set down for the year 1890 at £3,559,093.

This sum is compared with the corresponding amounts in preceding years since 1866, in the following table:—

Year.	Local taxation of Ireland.	Increase.	Decrease.	Increase per cent.	Decrease per cent.

1890,	3,559,093	—	104,114	—	2·8

It appears from this table that the local taxation of Ireland in the year 1890 shows a decrease of £104,114, or 2·8 per cent., on the returns for 1889.

Classification of local taxes.	Increase.	Decrease.

Total decrease,	—	128,351
Deduct increase,	24,157	—
Net decrease,	—	£104,114, as shown above

It will be seen by the foregoing table that the principal decreases are in the taxation by Grand Juries, by Town Authorities, and by Boards of Guardians, the three classes of local authorities which share in the annual distribution of the grant provided by the Probate Duties (Scotland and Ireland) Act, 1885. The amount of the grant distributed among these authorities in the year 1890 was £199,742 17s. 6d., of which one-half was received by Boards of Guardians, as shown in Appendix XVII., page 34, £81,324 11s. 8d. by Grand Juries, and £18,546 17s. 1d. by Town Authorities. The towns which participate in the grant, and the sums received by them in the year 1890 are given in Table XXI. of the Appendix, page 40.

* See note at foot of Table XIV. on page 28.

2. GRAND JURY CESS.

One of the most ancient and the largest of the local taxes in Ireland is the rate on real property called Grand Jury cess. It derives this name from the authority chiefly engaged in authorizing its application. The historical origin of this tax and of the constitution of the bodies to administer it, are fully explained in former Reports made by the late Dr. Hancock.

The following table shows the gross amount of Grand Jury cess under the principal heads of expenditure, and the per-centage of same:—

4. THE DOGS LICENCE DUTY.

The collecting of the dogs licence duty is entrusted to the Petty Sessions clerks, and a return of it is made to Parliament by the Registrar of Petty Sessions clerks; so that an abstract only is included in Appendix V. to this Report. A considerable part of the remuneration of Petty Sessions clerks is derived from the dogs licence duty. The surplus of the duty, after providing for the cost of collection, is paid over in aid of Grand Jury cess and Town rates.

6. COURT LEET PRESENTMENTS.

The only Court Leet ascertained to be still in operation in Ireland is that in the Manor of Killultagh, including the town of Lisburn, in the county of Antrim; a full account of the standing orders of this Court Leet is given in Appendix XXVI. to the Report for 1869.* The Court Leet presentments bear some resemblance to Grand Jury cess, in being made by a Court Leet Grand Jury and levied off land and being partly applied for manor roads; they resemble town taxation in being applicable to town fountains, fire-engines, and fairs and markets. There appears to have been no Court Leet presentment in the year 1890.

9. ARTERIAL DRAINAGE.

Repayments for Expenditure on Drainage Works executed by Commissioners of Public Works.

The particulars of these repayments have been supplied by the Commissioners of Public Works. The repayments made by proprietors of lands amounted to £28,335, and the sum repaid out of county cess was £1,346.

10. RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURE OF TOWN AUTHORITIES.

In this Report all the receipts of the various town authorities have been grouped together to facilitate comparison and obtain a general view of the relative amounts collected by the different classes of town authorities. The taxation levied by the Dublin Metropolitan Police Commissioner has not been included, as the expenditure on police is under the control of central and not of local authorities.

The receipts are divided into—(1) rates on real property; (2) tolls, dues, and fees; (3) receipts from property and other sources; (4) from borrowed money and from the issue of stock; (5) from the Imperial taxes; and (6) from Grand Jury cess, or other local rate.

The rates in lieu of Grand Jury cess levied by the Town Councils of Cork, Dublin, and Limerick in exercise of the powers elsewhere vested in Grand Juries, are included in the town taxation, and deducted from the abstract of Grand Jury cess on page 13, in which they are also returned.

11.—BURIAL BOARDS.

The receipts and expenditure by Towns for burial ground purposes are included in the town returns; and the details of receipts and expenditure both of Town burial boards, and the Poor Law burial boards are shown in Table XVI., in the Appendix.

12.—POOR RATES.

The particulars of the collection and expenditure of poor rates are so fully detailed in the annual Reports of the Local Government Board that it is only necessary on this occasion, as in previous years, to refer to abstract XVII. in the Appendix, page 34, which shows the amount of poor rates included in the general statement of local taxation in Ireland.

13. CLASSIFICATION OF LOCAL TAXATION AND PROPORTION RECEIVED FROM (1) RATES ON REAL PROPERTY; (2) TOLLS, FEES, STAMPS, AND DUES; AND (3) OTHER SOURCES.

In the following table the local taxation of Ireland is classified to show how much arises, respectively, from rates on real property, from tolls, fees, stamps, and dues, and from other sources of receipt, excluding borrowed money and grants from the Imperial taxes.

In the case of Grand Jury cess, from the total net amount to be levied, viz., £1,172,530 (the amount returned in Appendix L), £62,100, the amount for the counties of the cities of Dublin, Cork, and Limerick is deducted, for the reason mentioned in paragraph 10, page 8, leaving the net amount to be administered by Grand Jurors, or paid under imperative presentments, £1,110,430.

In the case of town taxation it has been necessary to deduct from the receipts from other sources of £221,231, included in the table in section 10 of this Report, £6,033 paid out of fines to treasurers of boroughs, £912, appearing in section 4, paid out of Dogs licence duty in aid of Town rates, £6,240, received from grants made for specific purposes, £442 received from the General Cattle Diseases Fund, £7,421 contributed from the taxation of some local authorities towards the expenditure of other authorities, and sums amounting to £9,378 which appear twice in the accounts of the same authority, thereby reducing the amount of such receipts to £190,805.

13. Light dues, and fees under Merchant Shipping Act,	—	18,231	—	18,231
Total,	2,797,511	464,028	297,754	3,559,293

It appears from this table that the total of the local taxation of Ireland is distributed in the following proportions:—

LOCAL TAXATION OF IRELAND, RESIDUENTS OF RECEIPTS FROM LOANS AND FROM THE IMPERIAL TAXES.

Rates on real property,	£	Per cent.
Tolls, Fees, Stamps, and Dues,	2,797,511	78.5
Other receipts,	464,028	13.04
Total,	297,754	8.46
	£3,559,293	100

Thus showing a decrease of £161,218 in the "Rates on real property;" an increase of £16,109 in "Tolls, Fees, Stamps, and Dues," and an increase of £40,995 in "Other receipts," making a net decrease of £104,114, as shown on page 5.
